

Have your say

Would you like to get involved with our Parent's Forum?

Tywardreath
School

Are you...

- ▶ interested in improving the schools communication?
- ▶ committed to ensuring the needs of your children are being met?
- ▶ willing to gather and share information from parents in your child's class?
- ▶ willing to discuss ideas and concerns with members of the school community?

If you can say yes to any of the question above we would like you to be involved with our Parents Forum.

How to get involved?

Just fill in the slip below and return to the schools reception or return in your child's school bag by Friday 9th May.

Where more than two parents for a class register an interest an election will be held by parents of all children in that class.
