'Leaders make effective use of the additional funding they receive to support pupils who have special educational needs (SEN) and/or disabilities. Leaders have an in-depth knowledge of the needs of these pupils and put detailed plans in place to support them. The plans are monitored rigorously and adjustments made where necessary. As a result, these pupils are making good progress'. OFSTED 2018

Whole School Approach to Teaching and Learning:

- ✓ High Quality Teaching and Learning – All teachers are responsible for the learning and progress of every child in their class, including those with SEN.
- ✓ An inclusive, differentiated and personalised approach to enable all learners, including those with SEN, to engage with all aspects of school life.
- ✓ Refer to Teaching and Learning Policy

Our Graduated Response for Learners:

- ✓ Continual monitoring of the quality of teaching
- ✓ Identifying and tracking the progress of children/young people that require support to catch up by quantitative and qualitative half termly assessments.
- ✓ Identification of children/young people requiring SEN Support and initiation of “assess, plan, do, review” cycle.
- ✓ Consideration of application for Education, Health and Care Plan.
- ✓ All children/young people identified as requiring SEN Support, or with an Education, Health and Care Plan (or statements) are on our Record of Need.

How we identify children that need additional or different provision:

- ✓ Ongoing curriculum assessments
- ✓ Half termly data to track progress
- ✓ Pupil progress meetings where the class teacher, SENCO and senior team leader discusses pupil progress, interventions and impact.
- ✓ Class teacher refers to SENCO – identify their needs and track them on class 'On Alert' lists for a minimum of 6 weeks, plan and deliver necessary interventions and provision tailored to their needs in order for them to 'catch up', monitor and assess their progress, consider transition from 'On Alert' to 'SEN Support' if they are not making necessary progress and have a particular area of need, further assessments by specialists, including those from external agencies carried out and an action plan put in place.
- ✓ Further assessments by specialists, including those from external agencies

We take a holistic approach to all aspects of a child's development and well-being. Our pastoral support arrangements for supporting the emotional and social development of all children/young

Partnerships with other schools and how we manage transitions:

We work with a number of schools in the area in the following ways:

- ✓ SEN Network meetings
- ✓ Visit nurseries and Early Years settings to meet new intake, meet with parents of children with SEN to assess their needs and make plans for appropriate provision in the new academic year.
- ✓ Transition days, both to and from Tywardreath school
- ✓ Providing opportunities for curriculum days and include children with SEN
- ✓ Working with other schools within our trust

This year, 6 children/young people requiring SEN Support came to us from our partner schools, with 1 child/young person with Education, Health and Care Plans or Statements of Special Educational Need. 2 children/young people on our Record of Need in 2015/16 made a successful move to our partner schools.

We ensure that the transition from Nursery to Reception is smooth by visiting all the Early Years settings where our new intake are based, completing informal observations, meeting with parents and addressing any concerns. We make sure we implement necessary provision to support any individuals with specific needs, before they start in the new academic year.

We support the transition from year group to year group by organising early transition opportunities for those children who need it, in addition to the 'whole school' transition process. For children with SEN, transition is individualised for those who need it and can include, home and pre-visits to the new learning environment, social stories about moving to the next class, additional opportunities for children to bond with the new teachers and teaching assistants, summer postcards and transition books of new teachers, teaching assistants and children, which can be taken home during the summer holidays.

The transition from year 6 to secondary school is supported through sharing important SEN information and data, including previous and current provision maps/targets, list of interventions undertaken, involvement of external agencies and opportunity for children to visit their new school on more than one occasion, getting to know daily routines, the areas of the school, etc.

Ongoing development:

We work hard to ensure that any areas of support for our learners that can be improved are identified and that strategies are put in place to make those improvements. We do this through our Academy Improvement Plan, which includes our SEND Development/Action Plan.

Our complaints procedure:

Anyone wishing to make a complaint with regard to SEN support and provision should refer to our complaints policy on our website.

This year we received 0 complaints with regard to SEN support and provision.
